Extension Programs Featured at the Benton Museum
If you are on campus during the fall semester, stop by and check out the exhibit Unfiltered: An exhibition about water. It's a "collaboration with the departments of Natural Resources and the Environment; Civil and Environmental Engineering; and Marine Sciences; Institute of Water Resources; as well as the CLEAR, CT Sea Grant, and CT NEMO Programs at the University of Connecticut, Storrs" <http://dailydigest.uconn.edu/publicEmailSingleStoryView.php?id=82666&cid=24&iid=2657>

We are looking for parents (caregivers) of youth 16-21 to participate in a focus group on access to services to substance abuse and mental health.

Are You A Parent Of A Young Adult Between The Ages Of 16 And 21?

We want to hear from YOU!

Come join us for a discussion on challenges and strengths to get help for youth substance abuse and mental health issues!

What works?
What doesn't?
Do you know where to go?
What stands in the way?

We want to know!!!
